The Holy Eucharist: Rite Two

Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor."

John 12:20-33

To All who are weary and need rest;
To All who are lowly and want friendship;
To All who mourn and need comfort;
To all who pray and all who do not, but ought;
To All who sin and need a Savior, and to whomsoever
will come...

name of the Master

The Sermon

Following the Sermon, all stand and say The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayers of the People

LEADER: Holy One in our midst, as we travel our Lenten path toward the treachery and betrayal of Maundy Thursday and the torture and death of Good Friday, we come seeking your mercy and guidance.

We pray for the peace, unity and renewing of all members of your Church. Cast out any evil spirit that seeks to divide us from one another. Fill us with the love and desire to embrace our neighbors and to follow where Christ leads us.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons that they may faithfully and boldly proclaim the Gospel of Christ. Empty them of the temptation to preach the comfortable message that demands nothing of their congregation. Fill them with the passion that drove Jesus that they may kindle in us your vision for our lives.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: We pray for all who govern and hold authority in this nation and every nation in the world. Empty all leaders of vanity and personal ambition for power. Fill them with the wisdom and desire to seek the peace and welfare of the world.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: We pray for eyes that see the orphaned child, the hungry, the refugee, the sick, the lame, the destitute, the prisoners, and for ears that hear the cries of all those who live loveless lives, those who mourn and those who die friendless. God of the falling sparrows, empty us of our indifference to the suffering of others. Fill us with the light of Christ that we may illumine the darkness around us and enable us to be faithful witnesses of the Gospel of Christ.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: We remember our brothers and sisters who have left us. Do not let our grief at their passing consume us. Fill us with the faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on Earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before.

Lord in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: Awaken in us the abiding love you have for your creation. Empty us of our callous disregard of the boundless beauty of the universe and our failure to exercise responsible stewardship over the Earth's resources. Fill us with wonder at the abundance we receive from your creation and increase our commitment to share that abundance with our neighbors.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

LEADER: Guide us in the ways of your justice and truth, and teach us to live, not out of fear, but out of trust in your promises. Roll away the stones that block our pathway into your kingdom. Empty us of anything that separates us from your love, and let joy gush up from the parched ground of our lives.

Lord, in your mercy,

PEOPLE: Hear our prayer.

CELEBRANT: [Concluding Collect]

Confession of Sin

BCP, 360

The Deacon or Celebrant says .

Leader: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Leader and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace
(All stand.)

All Things Come of Thee, O Lord

The Great Thanksgiving-Eucharistic Prayer A

The Book of Common Prayer p. 361

CELEBRANT: The Lord be with you.

PEOPLE: And also with you.

CELEBRANT: Lift up your hearts.

PEOPLE: We lift them to the Lord.

CELEBRANT: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

PEOPLE: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

CELEBRANT: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

(The people stand or kneel.)

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Eucharistic prayer continues

BCP, 363

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN

CELEBRANT: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer
People and Celebrant

The Book of Common Prayer p. 365

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Breaking of the Bread
