The Sermon

Following the Sermon, all stand and say The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen

Prayers of the People

LEADER: As we celebrate with joy the glorious resurrection of our Lord and his triumphant ascension into heaven, let us offer our intercessions and thanksgivings to God:

We pray for the holy Church of God and for its mission, that its divisions may cease, and that it may be filled with truth and love, and bear faithful witness to the Gospel of Christ. Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop, for Andy, Jeff, Kai and Hector, our own bishops; for Mark and Meg, our priests, and for Margaret our deacon; and for all other ministers and for all the holy people of God. Grant that they may be so filled with the power of the resurrection that they may lead us steadfastly in the way that brings us to everlasting life.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: Set us free from all false desires, vain ambitions, and everything that would separate us from your love that, like your servant Pachomius, we might give ourselves fully to a life of discipleship, seeking you alone and serving those you have given us to serve.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: We pray for the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples. Bring the nations into your fold. Grant that people everywhere listen to the voice of the shepherd who calls each one by name and follow where he leads.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: As you blessed your servant Thurgood Marshall with grace and courage to discern and speak the truth, grant that we, following his example, may know you and recognize that all humanity are your children.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: We pray for our families, friends and neighbors who live and work in this community, especially those who have commended themselves to our prayers, that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace, and health. Grant that we remain secure in the knowledge that your power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: We pray for the relief and protection of the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger. As you led your servant Frances Perkins to envision a society in which all might live in health and decency, help us follow her example to contend tirelessly for justice and the protection of all. Open the eyes of our faith that we may behold you in all your redeeming work.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: We pray for all who have died in the communion of your Church, and for those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal. Grant that we, who have been raised with Christ, may abide in his presence, and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

LEADER: Rejoicing in the fellowship of the ever-blessed Virgin Mary, blessed Paul and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

PEOPLE: To you, O Lord our God.

CELEBRANT: [Concluding Collect]

Confession of Sin

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 360

The Deacon or Celebrant says .

Leader: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Leader and People

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

The Book of Common Prayer p. 360

(All stand.)

CELEBRANT: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

PEOPLE: And also with you.

The Great Thanksgiving-Eucharistic Prayer A

The Book of Common Prayer p. 361

CELEBRANT: The Lord be with you.
PEOPLE: And also with you.
CELEBRANT: Lift up your hearts.
PEOPLE: We lift them to the Lord.
CELEBRANT: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
PEOPLE: It is right to give him thanks and praise.
CELEBRANT: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

S-130

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
(The people stand or kneel.)
Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Eucharistic prayer continues

The Book of Common Prayer p. 363

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN

CELEBRANT: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer
People and Celebrant

The Book of Common Prayer p. 365

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN.

Service Notes

Frances Perkins, an American workers' rights advocate (1880-1965), was the first woman to serve in a presidential cabinet. As U.S. Secretary of Labor (1933-1945) she was instrumental in developing policies for social security, for working with labor unions, and dealing with labor issues arising during World War II as women moved into skilled positions formerly held only by men.

Pachomius of Tabenissi, an Egyptian monastic (ca. 292-348), born in Thebes to pagan parents and converted to Christianity in 314, is generally recognized as the founder of Christian community monasticism. He was the author of the first formal monastic rule of life.

Thurgood Marshall, an American civil rights lawyer and jurist (1908-1993), he was a leading force in the effort to end segregation of public schools, culminating in the landmark U.S. Supreme Court decision Brown v. Board of Education. The first African-American to serve as an association justice of the Supreme Court, he served from 1967 to 1991.
